DECENTRALIZATION

What is decentralization?

Decentralization is the process of distributing power, control, and decision-making to different levels or entities rather than concentrating them within a single central authority. This allows for a more equitable distribution of power and offers benefits such as resilience, security, and reduced dependence on a single entity.

What's is a smart contract ?

A smart contract is an algorithm that executes automatically within a decentralized blockchain. Once launched, its mode of operation cannot be changed. The code is written in the blockchain and computations are performed by multiple computers worldwide, ensuring security and preventing hacking or interruption.

Our system takes 30% of each registration and distributes it among 6 users in the system. Users are classified into blocks, and each block consists of 6 users. When a registration occurs, a block is randomly selected from the pool, and 6 users from that block receive payments. The payment amount is limited to a certain number of times, and the block is put back into the pool for future draws.
